

Action Office® System

Over the past half-century, two things have remained constant: work continues to change, and Action Office makes it simple for organizations to manage that change. From the introduction of computers to new understandings of the importance of choice and variety in the workplace, Action Office helps individuals and organizations adapt.

Key Features

- 1. Structural Panel
Structural panels delineate space, provide privacy, and absorb sound. The panel also supports work surfaces, upper storage, and routes power to workstations.
- 2. Work Surfaces
Work surfaces can attach to the panel and lower storage. Sit-to-stand tables can also be integrated with Action Office, giving you more ways to change posture.
- 3. Power and Data
Action Office brings power and data to the tools you need to do your work. Wires and cables can be routed through panels right to the work surface.
- 4. Lower Storage
Tu® and Meridian® storage complements any Action Office application and can be used for individual or group storage.
- 5. Upper Storage
Wall-attached storage provides ample space to store books, folders, and other items.
- 6. Tackable Panel
Tackable panels offer plenty of space for the display of personal items.
